As publishers we strive to produce every book to the highest commercial standards. The book has been carefully designed to minimise awkward page turns, and to make playing from it a real pleasure; Particular care has been given to specifying acid-free, neutral-sized paper which has not been chlorine bleached but produced with special regard for the environment. Throughout, the printing and binding have been planned to ensure a sturdy, attractive publication which should give years of enjoyment. If your copy fails to meet our high standards, please inform us and we will gladly replace it.

Tablature Explained

The tablature stave comprises six lines, each representing a string on the guitar as illustrated.

A number on any of the lines indicates, therefore, the string and fret on which a note should be played.

Chord of C

- 1st String Open
- 2nd String 1st Fret
- 3rd String Open
- 4th String 2nd Fret
- 5th String 3rd Fret

A useful hint to help you read tablature is to cut out small squares of self-adhesive paper and stick them on the neck of the guitar adjacent to each of the frets, numbering them accordingly.

Gliss (Downward)

Strike note and then slide the finger holding that note down the fretboard.

Gliss (Upward)

Same as above except slide finger up the fretboard.

The image shows a musical score for the song "Baby, Won't You Get Down on Your Knee" by The Beatles. It includes a guitar part (top staff) and a bass part (bottom staff). The guitar part is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The bass part is written in bass clef. The lyrics are written below the guitar staff. The guitar part includes chord diagrams for G, A7, and Em. The bass part includes fret numbers (0, 3, 2) and a double bar line.

Guitar Part:

- Staff: Treble clef, key signature of one sharp (F#).
- Chords: G, A7, Em.
- Lyrics: ba - by, won't you get down on your knee; —

- Staff: Bass clef.
- Fret numbers: 0, 0, 0, 3, 0, 3, 0, 3, 0, 2, 2, 2, 0, 2, 0.

The musical score is for the song "C'm-on, lit-tle dar-lin', C'm-on and give your love to me". It is written for guitar in the key of D major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The score consists of two staves: a treble clef staff for the melody and a bass clef staff for the bass line. The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style with eighth and quarter notes. The bass line is written in a more complex style, featuring many doublets (two of the same note beamed together) and triplets. Above the treble staff, there are four guitar chord diagrams: a B major chord, a Bb major chord, an A major chord, and a "N.C." (Natural Chord) diagram. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, and the guitar tablature is written below the bass staff.

time; when we get back, I'll drop a line.

- 2 The days are bright and filled with pain.
Enclose me in your gentle rain,
The time you ran was too insane,
we'll meet again, we'll meet again.
- 3 Oh, tell me where your freedom lies,
The streets are fields that never die,
Deliver me from reasons why
You'd rather cry, I'd rather fly.

A thousand girls, a thousand thrills,
A million ways to spend your time;
When we get back, I'll drop a line.

Lost in a Roman wilderness of pain,
 And all the children are insane;
 All the children are insane;
 Waiting for the summer rain.

There's danger on the edge of town,
 Ride the King's highway.
 Wierd scenes inside the goldmine;
 Ride the King's highway west, baby.

Ride the snake, to the lake, The ancient lake.
 The snake is long, seven miles;
 Ride the snake, He's best.
 The west is the best.
 Get here and we'll do the rest.

The blue bus is calling us.
 Driver, where you taking us?

The killer awoke before dawn,
 He put his boots on,
 He took a face from the ancient gallery,
 And he walked on down the hall.

He went to the room where his sister lived,
 And then he pais a visit to his brother,
 And then he walked on down the hall.

And then he came to a door,
 And he looked inside,
 'Father?'
 'Yes, son?'
 'I want to kill you.'
 'Mother, I want to ...'

It hurts to set you free but you'll never follow me.
 Come on, baby, take a chance with us,
 And meet me at the back of the blue bus.
